Department	Jon Bilbao Basque Library The Jon Bilbao Basque Library is the largest library on Basque Culture outside the Basque Country. The library was founded in the late sixties under the auspices of the Basque Studies Program by then coordinator, William Douglass, with the help of Robert Laxalt, and guidance of Jon Bilbao. Today, the Basque Library is a part of the University of Nevada, Reno's main library.  Nowadays, the Basque Library serves the information needs of the Center for Basque Studies of the UNR, North American researchers interested in Basque Culture, and the Basque Diaspora as its memory institution.
Description of project/activities	Under the supervision of the Basque Librarian and working closely with the Library Technician, the student will work on the various collections of the Basque Library: published works, archival collections, posters, photographs. He or she will assist the staff of the Basque Library listing and describing the contents of these collections. He or she will also have the opportunity to take part in one-time projects and learn about the functioning of a North American academic library.
